

Program - Friday May 23rd, The Roben's Suite, 29th Floor Guy's Tower, Guy's Hospital

09.00 Registration

09.15 "The Right to Know, or not" – Chair, Chris Reid

09.15 "To test or not to test - whose right is it anyway?"

Dr Frances Flinter, Consultant Clinical Geneticist, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust

09.45 "Living with Knowing" Andy Williamson, Chair of Guy's and St Thomas' Kidney Patients' Association

10.15 Ask the Experts - your difficult genetic questions!

10.45 Coffee break

11.15 Free communications – Chair, Maud Dehennault, Dirk Bethe

11.15 "Patient with factor H deficiency associated haemolytic uremic syndrome loses fourth renal allograft – what comes next?" Anja Lehnhardt et al including institution

11.35 "The challenges of palliative care for children with chronic renal failure and learning difficulties" Martin Christian et al including institution

11.55 "It is not only adolescents who are non-adherent!" Suzanne Batte et al including institution

12.15 "The impact of dialysis on children's time" Daniel Alton et al including institution

12.30 "Do boys with chronic and end stage renal failure have a better quality of life than their female peers?" Hilary Maxwell et al including institution

13.00 Lunch