

Qualitative data from the GCQ Quality of Life project

Dr Katherine Hayes
Clinical Psychologist
Cleft Lip and Palate Service/ Paediatric Renal Service
Health Psychology
Royal Victoria Infirmary
Newcastle
NE1 4LP

Tel 0191 282 4051

Katherine.Hayes@nuth.nhs.uk

Five Paediatric Renal units in the UK managed to cooperate to study Quality of Life as assessed by the young people who have chronic renal disease using the GCQ. The results suggested that these young people assess their Quality of Life at the same level or above that of other young people without chronic renal disease.

In addition to the quantitative data collected, qualitative data from the young people and their parents was also collected.

This is a summary of those findings.